

Alfonso González, Martín Lara

Title: Aplicación de la programación paralela a problemas de cálculo de órbitas

Abstract:

Determination of gravitational potencial is a complex problem. Numerical integration, based in the S. Pines formula and power series algebra, requires a high computational cost which may be reduced by parallel routines in certains code blocks.

Affiliation: Alfonso González (Parallel Computing Group University of Murcia), Martín Lara (Observatorio Astronómico de la Armada)